Study advice for coursework students

If you're struggling with your studies...

- Stop 1 is your one-stop-shop for enrolment queries, and to get started with other general support and advice: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/n32a>.
- You can also book a session with a Stop1 adviser to discuss your concerns in detail or seek advice on academic skills: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/4av6>.
- If you're struggling with a particular subject, speak to the subject coordinator or your tutors for advice.
- Some faculties provide an academic support office, who can help with most general enquiries.
- Book in to an academic skills workshop: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/6ht6>.
- Investigate GSA's study skills workshops: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/2nu6>.

If you're confused by University systems...

- Read this step-by-step guide to Turnitin: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/9dqa>.
- Learn about your faculty's specific rules for citation and referencing: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/ynu6>.
- Understand how the University's grading system works: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/ywp6>.

If you need to resolve an issue...

- Understand the specifics of your course by checking the subject handbook: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/kf66>.
- Speak with your faculty's academic support team.
- Learn how to escalate your concerns or lodge a formal grievance with the support of UMSU Advocacy: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/sq3a>. (For issues with the University, UMSU advocacy has specialists trained to support graduate students.)

If external factors are impacting your studies...

- Find out about, and apply for, special consideration: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/82ma>.
- If your external factors are ongoing, such as a chronic health condition, disability or religious requirement, you may be eligible for ongoing support via Student Equity and Disability Support: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/c346>.
- Check the University service finder for further support: <http://go.unimelb.edu.au/gsm6>.
